HEATHENS PLENTIFUL IN STATE OF WASHINGTON, SAYS PREACHER

And They Are Harder to Convert, Is the Declaration of Rev. Mark A. Matthews

(By Latest Mail)

TACOMA, Wash.—Declaring that the prophets of the Old Testament were the greatest statesmen that ever lived, Rev. Calvin K. Staudt, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian church of Tacoma, delivered an introductory lecture on the "Hebrew Prophets" at the Christian Workers' conference at Whitworth College. Mr. Staudt described the lives of some of the prophets in the Old Testament. Isaiah was a greater statesman than Demosthenes, Cicero or Daniel Webster, said Mr. Staudt.

The Old Testament Bible study classes will be in charge of Mr. Staudt for the rest of the conference. He outlined the course of study that he will follow, including the lives and work of Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, Habakkuk and Jeremiah.

Rev. Robert Lamont Hay of the First United Presbyterian church spoke on the book of Acts.

Rev. Frederick Beebe spoke on "Teachers in Training," where he discussed with the delegates the best methods of Sunday school teaching.

More Heathens Here.

"When it comes to heathens," said Rev. Mr. Matthews, "there are more in the state of Washington than there are in the republic of China, in proportion. And those in Washington are harder to convert."

Asserting that Jesus Christ is coming to earth again, Rev. Matthews said everyone should live to be able to meet Him. No man knows when this time will be, and when He comes He will appear in personal, physical form, explained Rev. Mr. Matthews.

Changes have been made in the conference program so that women of the city might be able to attend the home mission study and the foreign mission study classes. Rev. Staudt announced that these classes will be changed from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m. to 3 and 4 in the afternoon. They will be conducted by Mrs. James Hayes and Mrs. C. K. Staudt. The music tonight will be furnished by the Westminster Presbyterian church. Delegates arrived this afternoon from the eastern part of the state. The program for tomorrow follows:

8:30 a. m.—Devotional service; 3:30-9:25, home mission study; 9:30-10:25, foreign mission study; 10:30-11, Sabbath school methods; "Unifying the Educational Work in the School," Rev. A. M. Williams; 11:05-12, quiet hour; 2:30, open forum on church problems; 3:40, home mission study; 4:50, foreign mission study; 7, address, "Young People's Work," Rev. J. H. Edgar; 8, address, "Twentieth Century Service," Rev. F. M. Silsley. The conference will continue two weeks.

A report shows that it costs the state of Michigan $1,491,253 to care for the insane and mentally deficient last year, while the University of Michigan cost the state only $1,373,834.

FAITHFUL 17 YEARS, HAS TO PAY A CENT

(By Latest Mail)
SEAFORD, Del.—Luther H. Clifton, former postmaster at Blides, Del., near here, was threatened with prosecution by the postoffice department in Washington because of a shortage of one cent in his accounts. He paid the amount and escaped trouble.
Clifton has been postmaster seventeen years. Last November he was succeeded by Caleb R. Cannon. When the office was transferred the accounts were examined. It was impossible to learn the amount of the cancellations. It is on this that the postmaster's salary is based. Finally the report of the expert accountant showed the Government owed the retiring official one cent. Notice was received that he owed one cent instead. Clifton paid the money to his successor and took his receipt.

Norman E. Mack, member of the Democratic National Committee, announced that he is not a candidate for United States senator from New York.
